

Education related to logistics and transport in the Fehmarn Belt Region – potential synergies, opportunities and challenges

PER HOMANN JESPERSEN,
ASSC. PROF., TRANSPORT PLANNING & TRANSPORT POLICY
ROSKILDE UNIVERSITY, DENMARK
PHJ@RUC.DK

The Fehmarn Belt fixed link – a bold and risky decision

1863

BeltLogistics - contribution

- ▶ 3 workshops with focus on education in transport and logistics
- ▶ Point at barriers to overcome if we want to have
 - ▶ A more integrated Fehmarn Belt Region
 - ▶ A more common labour market
 - ▶ More trade and collaboration between business companies
 - ▶ More collaboration between institutions

BELTLOGISTICS

Highlights

- ▶ Vocational training has to be harmonized to a degree, where there is reciprocal recognition of educations
 - ▶ ... or at least there are well-defined ways to obtain acknowledgement
- ▶ Cross-border apprenticeships and trainee exchange should be supported
 - ▶ Language
 - ▶ Money
 - ▶ Culture
- ▶ The tunnel construction process give opportunities for bridging the labour markets and establish cross-border collaboration between companies